

REMARKS

This amendment clarifies the priority claim for the present application as required by 37 C.F.R. 1.78(a). This amendment reflects the priority claim made for the PCT application from which this was a § 371 filing. This amendment is accompanied by a petition for unintentionally delayed claim under 37 C.F.R. 1.78(a)(6).

No new matter is presented by this amendment.

Applicants note that their petition to revive the present application was granted over two years ago but no further action has been received from the office. According to PAIR the status is still listed as abandoned but the granted petition is found in the file on PAIR. Therefore, Applicants also request that the status of this application be corrected and inquire as to when a first substantive office action is likely to be mailed.
